David Sedaris

Friday, April 5 at 8pm at the Bardavon

In its review of David Sedaris' new book Calypso, the Washington Post said, "After 25 years and nine essay collections, after publishing 500 pages of his own diary, the most shocking thing David Sedaris can do is reveal that he's been holding things back." Following its publication in May, Calypso immediately shot to the top of the NY Times bestseller list, and now David returns to Poughkeepsie for his annual reading and signing at the Bardavon. Slashing through cultural euphemisms and political correctness, he will delight the audience with twists of humor and intelligence as he shares both published stories and works-in-progress.

All Tickets are $49. Members receive a $5 discount.
