Bardavon kicks-off the 61st Hudson Valley Philharmonic season!

On Saturday, October 2 at 8pm the HVP returns to perform on the Bardavon stage for the first time in 21 months!

Featuring the most diverse program of soloists and composers that the HVP has ever presented.

(Poughkeepsie, NY) It has been an unprecedented year of upheaval, loss and hopefully soon, renewal. The death last year of the HVP's beloved Maestro Randall Craig Fleischer was a huge blow in the midst of everything else we've all been through. He will be impossible to replace, but with Randy's spirit in mind the Bardavon has put together an incredible season with no fewer than six guest conductors and over twenty soloists and contemporary composers. By the far the most diverse lineup the HVP has ever presented, we are pleased to kick-off the 61st Hudson Valley Philharmonic season! It was over 80 years ago that the Dutchess Philharmonic Community Orchestra was founded by four local amateur musicians, and 61 years ago that conductor Claude Monteux elevated the orchestra to a fully-professional ensemble, renaming it the Hudson Valley Philharmonic. This season also represents the HVP's 22nd year under Bardavon management.

Made possible through the generous support of Rhinebeck Bank, Azreili Foundation, Dr. Edwin Ulrich Charitable Trust, Norman & Jeannie Greene Fund of the Poughkeepsie Public Library District, Vassar Brothers Institute, Irving and Gloria Schlossberg Family Fund of the Community Foundations of the Hudson Valley, Bruderhof and WMHT FM 89.1 Schenectady and WRHV.
